Transactions

[Outstanding purchase orders]

This will contain ~~tables~~ data from tables/form modify_purchase_order, recieve_purchase_order

→ On clicking order no., ~~data can~~ form corresponding to modify_purchase_order should be opened in a view

→ Link in each row 'print copy' will redirect to print_purchase_order which ~~should~~ can print the purchase order for that order no.

→ Recieve link in each row will update the table for that order like is it recieved or not.

Also, ~~it~~ this page have ~~text boxes in which~~ facility to sort order by location, status, Dates and a particular order can also be searched using order no.

→ Modify_Purchase_order
This page has form which can be easily understoodable by seeing it. This page doesn't require data from any other table.
There is a link, on clicking we can send mail to the person who modified the order.

Maintenance

Add a new item

Table → item_maintenance

This page only have a form for inserting new item, and no data from other table is required to for this page.

Onet clicking insert new item, the data in this form should be stored in item_maintenance table.

Select an item

Page for querying items in item. Have list of stock category & partial description.

On searching, A table is displayed regarding our query which also contains 2 links item code & view. On clicking view A table cum form is displayed for that item which is a row corresponding to stock status table.

Add new item   select an item
    ↓   ↙   ↘
Item_maintenence   Stock category   query boxes
(table)   ↓
                                              searched_items
                                                 (table)
                                              ↙   ↘
                                      item code   View
                                       (link)   (link)
                                         ↓   ↓
                                         ⋰   Stock-status
                                                       (table)